

Celebrate Black History at the Kingsport

Renaissance Center

1200 E. Center Street, Kingsport, TN

423-392-8414

www.KingsportARTS.org

Friday, January 28, 2011

Black History Workshop

Rm239 / 6-8pm / Free

Topics of discussion: "The Black Presence of the Bible" Facilitator – Minister Joya Bush Cannon
& "Inventions of Great Black Minds"
Facilitator – Deaconess Linda Scofield

Saturday, January 29

"Gospel Fest,"

An evening of Music & Art

7pm Performance in Theatre

$5 Reserved Seats

Featuring

Xavier Hall –emcee

Bethel A.M.E. Zion gospel choir

Bristol Lee Street Baptist Praise Team

Lynette Alley

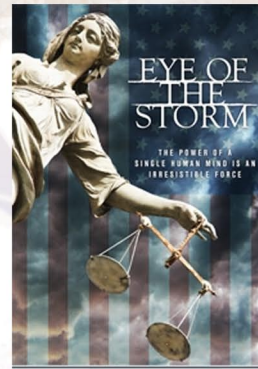

TCB – "Tri-Cities Blessed" Singers

Reception will follow concert

February Art Exhibits:

Nancy Johnson in Art Gallery

Ethnic Art in 2nd floor Atrium

Thursday, February 3

"Eye of the Storm,"

A One Man Show Presented by the

BARTER THEATRE

Renaissance Center Theatre / 7pm

$19--21 Reserved Seats

Written and performed by Will Stutts -- The Power of a Single Human Mind is an Irresistible Force For every action, there is an equal and opposite reactions proven by the life of Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., whose landmark judicial decision catapulted him into the center of the controversy surrounding the Civil Rights movement. Appointed to the bench by Dwight Eisenhower and the son of Republican parents from Alabama, Judge Johnson, finds himself caught in the "eye of the storm" as he struggles to uphold the laws of the nation and protect the rights of its citizens all while leading America into a new era of tolerance and equality.

Saturday, February 19

HOPE "Help Our Potential Evolve"

12noon – 3pm / FREE

Black Artists will conduct workshops in music, drumming, dance, storytelling, graphic arts, and African cuisine.

Drumming by Richie Hicks

African Cuisine Sampling & Lecture by

Gerri Harrison

Drama by Arts4Kids

Face Painting by Boys & Girls Club

Michael Jackson Wii Competition (1st & 2nd place prizes worth $100/each)

Workshops provided for all ages – Youth & Adults

Kingsport Parks & Recreation
CULTURAL ARTS

the arts
changing lives!
TENNESSEE ARTS COMMISSION

Stella Robinette

SOUTH
ARTS

Kingsport
Art Guild

Arts4Kids
Explore Arts All Year Long

WAL-MART

EASTMAN